

Introduction #1:

Many great heroes have a sidekick. For example, the comic book sidekick, Robin, assists Batman in vanquishing the villains of Gotham City. Not only as a crime-fighter but also as a faithful friend, the lively Robin compliments the dark and reserved Batman. Robin's eternal loyalty, boundless enthusiasm, and sharp-eyed vigilance make him an excellent partner for the caped crusader.

---

Color 1: Highlight the Thesis Statement. Underline the topic. Number the three prongs: 1, 2, 3.

Color 2: Highlight the Hook – does it hint at the topic or reveal the topic?

---

Write a hook for each of these thesis statements. Use a different type of hook for each.

	When visitors first step into Yosemite National Park, they experience a sense of wonder at the park's majestic peaks, towering waterfalls, and diverse wildlife.
	Joy and comfort fill Grandma's kitchen where sweet smells escape from the oven, savory flavors saturate each dinner plate, and grandma's love warms the entire room.
	Beyond mathematics exercises, Mr. James teaches his students vital life lessons through his silly "dad" jokes, encouraging words, and daily prayers for them.
	A family adds the spirit of festiveness, warmth of togetherness, and joy of celebration to the Christmas holiday.