ITEMS TO BE GRADED BY TUTOR

Use this list as a guide to help with paragraph revisions but do not mark the items in this column.

- 1 0 Title: creative, hints at paragraph's topic but does not give it away. Not the story's title or "ER"
- 2 1 0 Topic Sentence: includes title, author, and clearly but broadly addresses the prompt question.
- 2 1 0 1st Assertion: expands the topic by telling a more specific claim and gives brief story context.
  - 1 0 Evidence: a direct quote that clearly relates to and supports the 1st assertion.
- 2 1 0 Commentary: literary analysis that explains how your evidence (quote) proves your assertion (claim). Completes the first proof.
  - 1 0 Transition: a word or phrase that clearly indicates the change from the 1st proof to the 2nd proof.
- 2 1 0 2nd Assertion: expands the topic again by telling a second (different but related) claim and gives brief story context to set up the second quote.
  - 1 0 Evidence: a direct quote that clearly relates to and supports the 2nd assertion.
- 2 1 0 Commentary: literary analysis that explains how your evidence (quote) proves your assertion (claim). Completes the second proof.
- 2 1 0 Concluding Sentence: final, impactful thought. Wraps up the entire paragraph (not just the 2nd proof). Does not add new evidence or analysis.
  - 1 0 Argument: shows thoughtful construction; fully, clearly, and persuasively answers the prompt.
  - 1 0 Syntax: complete sentences, no run-ons or sentence fragments.
- 2 1 0 Communication: clear and logical; no awkward phrasing; transitions between ideas as needed.
- 2 1 0 Word Choice: strong, descriptive words; varied, not repetitive.
  - 1 O Tense: discusses the author, characters, and story events in literary present tense.
- 2 1 0 Editing: proper grammar, punctuation, spelling.
